KEEP at work! The heat is up! pile on the fuel! Don't let steam go down till you run safely into port.

SEE that every man is brought to the polls. And see that every man is registered. Chairmen of Executive Committees, everything depends upon your zeal and vigilance.

REMEMBER all the amendments proposed by the State Constitution will be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection. If the alterations proposed to the Constitution are not acceptable, they will be rejected.

GIVE Radicalism its quietus on Thursday. Let the Federal office-holders know that their occupation in North Carolina is gone. And let the domestic office-holders know that they can no longer control the white people of North Carolina to shape the ends of a corrupt party.

KEEP John Page and his assertion before your eyes. John Page "spoke out in meeting," and meant exactly what he said, and believed then that he would get what he wanted.

Do the whites want to give Page the pleasure of "breaking down all distinction between white and black in everything?"

PEOPLE of Wake! the eyes of the State are upon you! The white men of the State have put in your hands the banner of your party. Don't let it go down in shame in the smoke and din of the battle. When the shock is passed let it be seen proudly crested gilded with the sun of victory.

LET the Democrats prove their faith by their works. They know what the Radical party is, and they know how loathsome it is in its practices and its principles. No Democrat will vote for it. But as much mischief can be done by staying at home as by voting with the enemy.

Don't fail to vote Thursday.

DO the people of Wake not see the difference, between the county loaded with debt, honor and credit all gone, the fruits of Radical majority, and the present, when credit is restored and its honor retrieved, the results of last year's victory? Will they forget the past, and undervalue the present.

VOTE IN FULL STRENGTH FOR YOUR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES!

SOMETHING FOR WHITE PEOPLE TO THINK OF TO-DAY.

The Patriot says that in his speech on Monday night Maj. Smith told the negroes that in thirty years from now their four year old children would rule this country. It was only a question of time.

How do you like this, white men? How do you like the idea of having the destinies of your children dominated by the negro race? Do you see any thing around you, in negro character, in morals, intelligence or progress to make that prospect a comfortable one? But a prominent leader of the radical party tell you this is your destiny.

Vote down such a party.

DARK LANTERN CONSPIRACY.

We copy from the Greensboro Patriot a correspondence between W. A. Smith, who is canvassing in the West, and L. M. Scott, Chairman of the Executive Committee of Guilford county proposing a division of time in the discussion of Monday night. The proposition was declined.

The rads had it all to themselves. They would allow no light to be thrown on the subject. They would allow no correction to reach the negro. They would allow nothing to break the force of ad captandum appeals to the ignorant race.

White men! the negro race is arrayed against you! They are marshalled by the leaders of the radical party. They are led on by Maj. Smith. He is their Moses. He promises that thirty years hence the negro shall stand where you do. The Israelites were content to wander forty years in the Wilderness. W. A. Smith shortens the pilgrimage of his followers to thirty years.

White men, will you encourage this degradation of your race, the humiliation of your children?

If not, stand up to the Democratic party, the white man's party. Vote against every republican candidate. Support no man who will owe his election mainly to the negro vote—a vote given solidly against the best interests of the white people.

The following is the correspondence referred to:

Greensboro, Aug. 2, 1855.
Hon. W. A. Smith.

Dear Sir:—Receiving information that you propose to address the people of this place, at the City Hall, this evening, on the subject of Convention, I respectfully request that you will divide time with some speaker on the Democratic side.

Respectfully,
L. M. SCOTT, Chmn.
Ex. Com. Guilford County,

Greensboro, Aug. 2, 1855.
L. M. Scott, Esq., Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of this date requesting a division of time at the Benbow Hall to-night upon the Convention question is at hand.

I will consult with the Chairman of the Rep. Ex. Committee of this County, and give you notice in time of my or his decision.

Yours truly,
W. A. SMITH.

McAfee House, Aug. 2, 1855.

Sir:—Your note of this date to the "Hon. W. A. Smith" has been referred to me.

Other arrangements have been made and your proposition is respectfully declined.

I am very respectfully,
Thomas M. Queen, Chmn. Ex. Com.
Guilford County.

To Mr. L. M. SCOTT, Chmn &c.

THE PROSPECTS.

The battle-field of to-day will be shrouded in the smoke of uncertainty for some little time to come. We do not allow ourselves for a moment to doubt the result—a result which the energetic action of the past two or three weeks promises to make glorious.

A gentleman of most thorough acquaintance with the political complexion of the State, and whose practical acquaintance with every county in it, has submitted to us the following conjectures. We think they come so nearly the truth that they may stand in the light of prophecy.

With regard to Wake county, our own information leads us to believe that the Democrats will carry it. Of course doubt hangs around the result; for this is the head centre of radical operations and nothing has been spared in money, trick or misrepresentation to carry the county for the Republicans.

On July the 6th an ancient tribunal, the most so of any save the High Court of Parliament, virtually ceased to exist. On that day the Court of Queen's Bench, which represented the royal authority, was, for a long time, the last to sit, and will probably never sit again. It is a curious circumstance that, reckoning from the accession of Alfred in 870 the earliest date at which such a jurisdiction can be shown to have been exercised—in the year 1870, when the original of the Judicature act which abolished it was introduced, just one thousand years should have elapsed. To Sir Alexander Cockburn, certainly in many respects the most distinguished of the series, belongs the melancholy distinction of being the last Lord Chief Justice of England. The jurisdiction of the court, it is true, is preserved by the Judicature act and is vested in that division exclusively. But as that great court, which has existed ever since the conquest as a distinct and separate tribunal, with that high and lofty jurisdiction which could originally only be exercised by the King in person, and was so exercised even as late as the time of Alfred, as the royal court of the West, inferior only to Parliament in greatness and in dignity, its history has closed. It has, however, a great history, a history of ten centuries duration, closely connected with the constitution of the country through a long succession of ages, and associated with a series of great names and historic, often tragic events.

The following is the communication referred to:

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 4th, 1855.
Mr. Editor:—Believe me, I have prepared, with some care, an estimate of the result of the election to-morrow which you may give to your readers, if you think proper. This estimate has been made from very intelligent sources, and from quite an intimate acquaintance with the people and the political complexion of the counties.

Let it not be so. Let Wake county secure against itself this mortification.

The following is the communication referred to:

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 4th, 1855.
Mr. Editor:—Believe me, I have prepared, with some care, an estimate of the result of the election to-morrow which you may give to your readers, if you think proper. This estimate has been made from very intelligent sources, and from quite an intimate acquaintance with the people and the political complexion of the counties.

Assume with great confidence, that the following named counties will be in the hands of the Democrats:

Alexander, Alleghany, Ashe, Buncombe, Burke, Catawba, Caldwell, Carteret, Catawba, Chatham, Clay, Cleveland, Columbus, Cumberland, Currituck, Davidson, Davie, Duplin, Gaston, Gates, Guilford, Harnett, Haywood, Hyde, Iredell, Jackson, Lincoln, Macon, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Madison, Randolph, Rockingham, Rowan, Sampson, Stanley, Stokes, Surry, Transylvania, Tyrrell, Union, Watauga, Wayne, (I), Wilson, Yadkin.

These counties send sixty-seven, (67) delegates, but we have claimed only one from Guilford and Wayne, making as absolutely certain as anything in the womb of the future can be the election of 65 Democratic delegates, being a clear majority of ten (10) in the Convention.

Many of our friends consider the result in the following named counties doubtful. We do not pretend that all of them will vote the Democratic ticket, and some of them by large majorities:

Alamance, Beaufort and Pamlico, Brunswick, Camden, Cherokee and Graham, Dare, Franklin, Henderson, Johnston, Martin, Person, Polk, Robeson, Rutherford, Wake, Washington, and Yancey. These counties send twenty three,

(23) delegates; most of them may be set down as Democratic.

The remaining counties of the State, to wit:

Bertie, Bladen, Caswell, Chowan, Craven, Edgecombe, Forsythe, Granville, Greene, Halifax, Hertford, Jones, Lenoir, Mitchell, New Hanover and Pender, Northampton, Pasquotank, Pitt, Robeson, Sampson and Wilkes, are generally conceded to the radicals. These counties send thirty delegates. We think our chances to carry 12 of these delegates quite as favorable as those of the Radicals. Our prospects are decidedly good for Bertie, Bladen, Chowan, Forsythe, Hertford, Jones, Lenoir, Mitchell, Pasquotank, Sampson and Wilkes.

While we place among the poor the election of one Radical from each of the counties of Granville, Pitt, Robeson, Sampson and Wilkes, we do not place among the poor the election of one Radical from each of the counties of Granville, Pitt, Robeson, Sampson and Wilkes.

While the result is assured, let every Democrat walk till sunset to-morrow, to make the overturn of Radicalism in North Carolina, thorough and complete.

DAILY NEWS.

AUGUST 5, 1875.

CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Rooms of the Democratic Central Committee to the People of North Carolina.

ADDRESS OF THE EXECUTIVE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Rooms of the Democratic Central Committee to the People of North Carolina.

Raleigh, June 1st, '75.

To the People of North Carolina:

The General Assembly at its recent session called for a meeting of the people to meet at Raleigh on the 5th day of September next, for the purpose of suggesting such alterations in the State Constitution as may be deemed expedient and necessary.

NECESSITY FOR CHANGE.

The necessity for changing many of the provisions of the existing Constitution is now recognized by all. It is true that some of our opponents men at one time opposed the bill of rights, but the bill was based on prudential consideration, and not on any indisposition to have the Constitution called for. The bill of rights was introduced on "Constitutional Conventions," where, by argument and debate cited by him in relation to this measure, it was shown that the people were bound to obey the restrictions imposed by the Legislature in the calling the Convention.

ADD FROM REPUBLICANS.

In our last election it was gratifying to see that those who had hitherto been enemies to a bill of rights were now seen to be in favor of it.

The bill has been withdrawn.

It is now in the hands of the French substitutes.

The bill will be introduced again.

BOSTON.—The Veterans of the Third Georgia Regiment Visits Their Old Camping Ground Around Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va.

The Norfolk papers of yesterday contain full particulars of the visit of the veterans soldiers of the Third Georgia Regiment to that locality. The Journal thus introduces its account of their arrival there.

More than fourteen years ago, while the smoke was ascending from the ruins of Gosport Navy-yard, and amid the consternation an excitement existing in our city over several of the threatening attitude of several men who in their course the whistlers of the streets, here heralded the arrival of ten military companies from Georgia; the Confederate Light Guards, Captain E. J. Walker; Wilkinson Rifles, Captain W. A. Beal; Brown Rifles, Captain R. B. Nesbit; Athens Guards, Captain H. C. Bullock; Young Guards, Captain A. H. Lee; Home Guards, Captain J. S. Reed; Dawson Greys, Captain R. L. McWhorter; Governor's Guards, Captain J. L. Griffin; Burke Guards, Captain W. C. Musgrave; and Blodget Volunteers, Captain Foster Blodget.

Soon after their arrival in this city the Third Georgia regiment was organized with the heroic Wright as Colonel, James S. Reed Lieutenant Colonel, and A. H. Lee Major—a splendid military body numbering more than one thousand men. Thus, in the hour of our extremity, Georgia sent the choicest jewels for our protection and assistance. How they performed their mission, in the battle field from Sawyer's Lane to Appomattox answer. After four years of war they returned to the Empire State of the South, shattered, scattered and wrecked, leaving perhaps nearly half beneath the sod, to rebuild their ruined fortune.

Yester evening at 7 o'clock the survivors of that once proud and splendid body of soldiers returned to this city "without the pomp and circumstance of a military review" to hold their second annual reunion on the first camping-ground. At the High street depot they were met by an immense congregation of citizens—ex-Confederates and freemen—and one universal shout of welcome went up from the crowd amidst the roar of artillery and sweet strains of music. Then came the hearty handshaking, while hundreds of fair hands were waving their handkerchiefs—tokens of friendly greetings from beautiful ladies for the brave and gallant visitors. The national salute was fired from the wharf by the artillery corps of the Chambers Fire Company.

It is the intention of the people of Norfolk and Portsmouth to give these visitors a good time. They will also visit the historic ground around Petersburg, where it was their privilege to engage in many a sanguinary conflict.
